Deaths of Two Texarkana Women Probed

TEXARKANA (AP) — A 28-year-old blond-haired mother of three children was found strangled in a garage and another young woman was found shot to death at her home near here today.

The deaths, which were unrelated, were being investigated.

Sheriff Bill Watlington of Bowie County, Tex., identified the dead women as Dollie Dimpie Lindsay and Shirley Jean Bundy, 24. Miss Bundy was shot.

Watlington said one end of an electric light cord had been knotted about Mrs. Lindsay's throat and the other end had been tied about a 10-foot rafter in the garage of her home in the Eylau community, a few miles southwest of Texarkana. The body, clad in a half slip and a halter, was found by the woman's husband, C. W. Lindsay, after he missed his wife early today, Watlington said. A carpenter's bench was nearby.

Watlington said Mrs. Bundy was found dead on the floor of her home in DeKalb, Tex., 32 miles west of Texarkana. A .38 caliber automatic pistol lay nearby. Mrs. Bundy, who was employed at the Red River Arsenal, was the wife of Mack G. Bundy and a daughter of Deputy Sheriff Carl Elliott.

Extended Forecast

Extended weather forecast for Sept. 4-8:
Arkansas Temperatures will average 2-5 degrees below normal. Normal minima 64-75. Normal maxima 85-92. Cooler southeast Saturday. Slow rising trend beginning Monday. Precipitation moderate to locally heavy thundershowers about midweek.

NOT SO STRANGE — New York sizzled in its 10th straight day of record heat wave with temperature hitting 99 in the shade Wednesday. Man and beast were affected alike, so it isn't strange Tom Hoffman and his horse Chester share same ASPCA tub. (NEA Telephone)

Three Wrecks Cause Property Damage Here

Two occurred on South Main. One auto driven by the Rev. Delbert McAtee of Tulsa crashed into the back end of a parked highway truck which was driven by C. L. Skinner. There was light damage to both vehicles.

Further out on S. Main, at the underpass curve an auto driven by Mary Seifer of Richmond Hill, N. Y., collided with an Anthony Mill truck driven by Earl Smit of Hope, Rt. 4. The car was heavily damaged. City police filed a charge of failure to yield the right-of-way against the New York woman.

Early today on East Third St., an auto driven by C. E. Griffith of Arkadelphia, Rt. 4, apparently went out of control and overturned on East Third Street. Griffith was not seriously hurt but the car was badly damaged.

Cost of the Party Is Not Too Important — Its Whether You Are Having a Wonderful Time

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Helen sat on the tenement stoop at twilight waiting for Joe.

The heat from the great summer stove of Manhattan hammered at her, and she tried to fan it away with a folded newspaper.

When she saw Joe coming down the sidewalk, his collar open, his coat dangling limply over one arm, she put the paper on her knees and bent her head over it, as though absorbed.

Joe slumped down silently at the other end of the stoop and watched her. After a moment Helen lifted her eyes, faked a squeal and said, "Oh, Joe, you startled me."

"Don't give me that stuff," said Joe, crossly. "Why do girls sit around thinking up poney things to say? You saw me coming."

They looked at each other warily, trying to decide whether it was too early in the evening to quarrel. Then both decided it was too hot.

"What're you reading?" asked Joe, reaching for peace.

"Oh, about the big party that

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The American Legion's new national commander predicted 1954 will be the year of decision on universal military training.

At the same time he "could see" no early prospect for reducing the defensive strength of our armed forces.

"Yeah," said Joe, "but which place—the one on the East River or the Judson Riviera?"

Helen laughed. Joe always said such crazy things.

"Oh, it must have been wonderful," said Helen dreamily. "Hundreds of famous people were there, and they wore costumes. They had lace-covered benches to sit on. And they even had peddled cattle and sheep wandering around among the guests on the lawn. Wasn't that a cute idea?"

"It must have been exciting," Helen went on. "Elsa Maxwell rode in on a donkey, and a French dancer arrived on a camel. But if I could have gone to the party, I'd have come on a big pale white horse, the kind you see at the

Isolated by Chinese for More Than Three Years, Gen. Dean Welcomes Sight of Americans

By The Associated Press

FREEDOM VILLAGE (AP) — Maj. Gen. William F. Dean, white-haired and thin after more than three years in Communist prisons, today rode a Russian-built jeep back to freedom and to a heart-warming welcome by the first Americans he had seen since his capture.

Dean, who won the Medal of Honor fighting beside his men in the streets of Taejon, had aged 10 years in appearance. He came back wearing a dust-covered blue cotton suit, brown sneakers, yellow shirt, a red tie and a way grin.

He said he had not seen another American since July 21, 1950.

"It is certainly good to see so many fellow citizens," Dean said warmly. "You all look better to me than I do to you, I'm sure."

At this processing center the tanned old soldier told of his capture in the midst of the swirling confusion of the war's dark early days. . . of sleepless days. . . 68 hours once — of questioning during which he wore out relays of 12 interpreters. . . of the terrible isolation of more than three years.

Much of the time, he said, the Communists gave him nothing to read and no pencils or paper. He spent his lonely days working mathematical problems in his head.

The general was greeted by high ranking officers and fighting men. He beamed as the cheers rang out.

He arrived in the last ambulance to come from Panmunjom and after routine processing was flown to the evacuation hospital at Seoul.

The Air Force said Dean probably would be flown to Tokyo tomorrow.

The 54-year-old general, a veteran of almost 30 years in the Army, said he wandered a month through Korea trying to reach American lines. For 20 days he went without food. Then came his capture, long marches and hours of questioning.

The Communists used several teams of interrogators but only two interpreters, he said.

"The first time they questioned me 68 hours," Dean said. "I think the interpreters just wore out."

"The next time it was only 44 hours. The third go was 32 hours. I hurt me to sit down. I sat on my hands until they puffed up."

"They were going to punish me as a 'war criminal' for my activities as military governor of South Korea."

Dean said he met several Communists whom he had seen earlier in various positions in South Korea.

Dean said he became separated from the men of the 24th Division which he commanded on July 21, 1950.

"In five occasions while trying to get back to my division I was surrounded by North Koreans or local boys who had been given guns by North Koreans and who called themselves home guards," Dean said.

By Aug. 23 he had worked his way as far south as Chinhae, about 30 miles below Taejon. There he met a Korean civilian who promised to help him return to American lines.

But when they reached the point where they were supposed to meet American troops, a group of Koreans started shooting.

A Korean grabbed his arm and "before I was able to get my hands free about 20 Koreans were on me."

That night in a jail Dean's feet were swollen so he took off his boots.

"That gave them the idea," he added wryly. "They took the boots."

"The next day when we were marching north they gave me Korean rubber shoes but there were no soles on them. It was a terrible mistake taking my boots off."

The general's wife heard the news of his release while driving from Berkeley, Calif., to the home of their daughter in Monterey, about 130 miles to the south.

Tongay Tries to Leave U.S., Jailed

NEW ORLEANS, (UP) — Russell Tongay, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of his little aquatot daughter at Miami, was arrested here today to prevent his leaving the country.

Tongay, whose flaxen-haired daughter, Kathy, 5, died after a high practice dive for her difficult aquatic act, is free under $1,000 bail on the manslaughter charge.

He entered the passport office here yesterday seeking clearance to Mexico and New Orleans police made the arrest on request of authorities in Dade County, Fla.

John G. Dauber, Tongay's attorney, denied that the father of the sensational swimming children, Kathy, and her seven-year-old brother, Bubba, was trying to flee the country.

LITTLE ROCK, (AP) — Rep. James R. Campbell of Garland County said today he would ask the Arkansas Legislative Council to investigate the use of "leftist" textbooks in public schools and colleges.

The veteran legislator has prepared a resolution directing the council to determine if Arkansas schools are using any of the 43 sociology textbooks recently cited as advocating left wing teachings.

Cool northern breezes and refreshing showers spread across the sun-baked Midwest today bringing happy relief from a prolonged heat wave.

Hot and humid weather, however, continued in wide areas in the eastern sections of the country. But there was hope of an early break, probably by tomorrow.

The cool air mass from Canada, heading eastward and southward, pushed back the torrid stagnant air that had held a tight grip over the Midwest for as long as 11 days.

Temperatures tumbled as much as 20 degrees as the cool air moved steadily across the parched mid-continent. A band of showers about 100 to 200 miles wide were general along the leading edge of the cool air from Wisconsin southward into eastern Iowa, northwestern Illinois, Missouri and northern Texas.

Weather bureau officials said the cool mass would cover all of Michigan and Indiana by late today. There was indication that it would continue eastward and southward and bring relief to other heat-stricken areas.

Showers were forecast for sections about 180 miles to the rear of the cooler air, extending over eastern Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois and Indiana.

Chicago, sweltering with other areas from the Rockies to the Atlantic Coast in the summer season's longest heat wave, got the welcome relief around midnight.

Spa Officer to Get Medal of Honor

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army yesterday disclosed the story of how an Arkansas lieutenant won the Medal of Honor for leading his platoon in a hopeless defense of a position in Korea.

The three-wounded officer, 1st Lt. James L. Stone, was told that he had received the honor when he was released from a Communist prison camp last Tuesday night.

He is the son of S. L. Stone of 406 E. 2nd St., Pine Bluff, Ark.

The story of Stone's stand was included in the citation accompanying the nation's highest award.

This is the story:
A First Cavalry Division platoon under Stone's command was on an outpost in Korea on a November night in 1951 when it was attacked by Chinese Red troops.

The lieutenant got his first wound during the initial attack in a hand-to-hand battle with Chinese who had broken through the lines. Just before this Stone had exposed himself to enemy fire to repair the only flame thrower in the unit.

The Arkansas, although seriously wounded himself, continued to give aid to the wounded in his platoon and prepared the positions for a second attack. The group then had only one machine gun.

When the assault came he "personally carried the only remaining machine gun from place to place" to direct the maximum fire against an enemy attacking from several directions. Stone was wounded again during the second attack.

He refused to give up and continued to lead weapons for his men until he was strong enough to resume his command.

The citation said Stone "stood erect and exposed to the terrific enemy fire, calmly directed his men in the defense."

U.S. Will Try to Delay UN Seating of China

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The United States will propose that the coming U. N. General Assembly postpone the question of seating Red China for another year, informed quarters said today.

These sources said the United States already has consulted some delegations and is confident the Assembly will sidetrack the issue, at least until its 1954 session.

Soviet Delegate Andrei Y. Vishinsky served notice two weeks ago that he would press to seat the Peiping regime when the Assembly opens its three-month 1953 session Sept. 15.

Since then the Soviet newspaper Pravda has been giving the China representation question a big build-up. It insisted that the seating of the Chinese Communist government in the U. N. is "an absolute precondition" to the preservation and consolidation of international peace.

The air force said five Sabres were lost in one flight and an F4U Thunderbolt was lost in another. The Sabre is the hottest U. S. fighter plane on regular duty; the Thunderbolt is slightly older.

The air force said three pilots crash-landed with only minor injuries, and two others parachuted and were listed as "probably safe."

The sixth — one of the Sabre pilots — was missing somewhere in the same general area where the others went down.

The air force blamed a violent weather front that built up suddenly and slammed a lid over the jet's Japan bases.

Seven U. S. sergeants returning Friday estimated there were still between 450 and 500 Americans in Kuesong, the Red collection center for prisoners to be repatriated.

The Communists also delivered 5 British and 200 South Koreans Friday and promised 25 British and 13 South Koreans Saturday.

The Allies and Reds agreed Thursday to end the huge swap with Sunday's exchange. The Reds said that if any unforeseen difficulties arise, they would notify the Allied command Saturday.

The remaining two days are expected to bring back a special group of Americans—men used by the Reds in their germ warfare propaganda.

275 Americans to Be Freed on Saturday

By GEORGE A. MCARTHUR

PANMUNJOM (AP) — The Reds finally freed U. S. Maj. Gen. William F. Dean today and promised a record-breaking 275 Americans for tomorrow, the next to last day of the Korean War prisoner exchange.

The Americans coming back Saturday will be by far the largest number returned on any single day.

They will bring the total of Americans returned to 3,480, well above the 3,313 the Reds promised before the exchange began Aug. 4. And there may be more Americans in the final day's exchange Sunday. The Reds have not given any figures for that delivery.

Dulles Throws Major Issue Into Elections

BONN, Germany (AP) — West German Socialists hurled fresh denunciations today at U. S. Secretary of State Dulles in an effort to turn his open support for re-election of pro-American Chancellor Konrad Adenauer into a boomerang which would sweep the neutralist opposition to power.

The anti-Communist Socialists — who are also anti-rearmament and anti-alliance with either East or West — jumped with both feet on Dulles' statement yesterday at a Washington news conference that defeat of Adenauer would delay solution of the problem of this divided country.

Socialist Chief Erich Ollenhauer charged the United States with "shocking" "polluted interference" in the campaign leading up to next Sunday's voting.

By DON DOANE
BONN, Germany, (AP) — A charge of American "interference" exploded today as a major issue in West Germany's bitter election campaign.

U. S. Secretary of State Dulles touched off the new furor with a statement yesterday at his press conference that defeat of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government in next Sunday's voting would cause confusion and delay solution of the German problem.

The endorsement apparently was intended to boost Adenauer's pro-Western regime, but instead it may boomerang against the chancellor. American officials there plainly were worried about their government's embroilment in the campaign.

Whatever the result, the statement overnight became the hottest — if not the biggest — issue of the entire campaign for election of the 464 members of Parliament.

"This is a vicious attempt by the American government to interfere in the German election," the Socialist party protest said. "One of the most shocking political interferences in this election campaign," Socialist Chairman Erich Ollenhauer echoed in a campaign speech last night.

Lawmen Call
Air Force Cut
Dangerous

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON, (AP) — Two Democratic senators today lashed a reduction in the Air Force's production program "shocking" and "dangerous," and Sen. Potter (R-Mich.) asked for disclosure of all the facts involved in the 750 million dollar cutback.

Senatorial criticism began to erupt with publication of reports, later modified that plans to purchase 1,000 planes had been cancelled. The aircraft reduction is apart from the five billion dollars cut earlier this year from the Air Force budget.

However, James H. Douglas, acting secretary of the Air Force, told newsmen the striking power of the Strategic Air Command would not be effected "materially" by the reduction, which he said was not an economy move.

Instead, he declared, it followed from revised estimates of what the Air Force needs and will release money for other types of aircraft, some perhaps to be of aircraft.

Secretary of Defense Wilson, announcing the reduction in St. Louis yesterday, said changes were being made "so we can spend the money for the right thing at the right time and for the right purpose."

He declared the reduction would not affect the current production rate of 1,000 airplanes a month nor prevent the Air Force from reaching its goal of 120 wings.

Sens. Hill (D-Ala.) a member of the Senate Appropriations Committee, and Stennis (D-Miss.), an Armed Services Committee member, voiced doubts that sufficient new orders will be forthcoming to prevent a reduction in overall planned air strength.

Chinese 'Rebels' to Get Fighters

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — A Nationalist Chinese news agency said today the Chinese Communists plan to give the Vietnamese rebels in Indochina 15 fighter planes and use of air bases in South China's Kwangsi province.

The Interior Ministry's Ta Tao agency, which claims underground sources said the planes would be handed over shortly at Nanning in Kwangsi.

The agency also said a 33-man Vietnamese good will mission left Peiping Aug. 27 for Outer Mongolia after a four-week visit to North China, probably to conclude a mutual defense pact with the Mongolian state.

Nurse Dies for Slaying Her Baby

By REX THOMAS

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — With a member prayer for forgiveness, Mrs. Earle Demmon was put to death early today for the bizarre poison playing of an infant niece whose life she had insured for $5,000.

The frail, trembling former surgical nurse made no protest as she was seated in Kirby prison's yellow electric chair, but wept and uttered a faint cry when the straps were pulled too tight.

She was the first white woman ever electrocuted in Alabama.

Mrs. Demmon, who fed arsenic to 2-year-old Shirley Damm Weidman for the insurance she had taken out on her, met death calmly despite her nervousness.

To the prison authorities and witnesses who watched her die, the 39-year-old widow had only this to say:

"Please forgive me for everything I did. I forgive everybody."

With those final words, the black cloth mask was hooked into place and 2,500 volts of electricity were shot through the nurse's body. The time was 12:06 a. m. (CST). At 12:11 a. m. two physicians pronounced her lifeless.

The most popular horse for harnessing to stage coaches was the Percheron, which contained Flemish blood crossed with the Arab. It still is widely used for draught purposes in Argentina and the U.S.

Mysterious Phone Call

Dear Miss Dix: Last week I received a very disturbing phone call. A man who identified himself as a mutual friend said he had seen my husband out with another woman. When questioned about it, my husband told me I had become too matter-of-fact in my attitude towards our marriage. A few hours later I called the friend back for more information, and he denied ever having called me, saying he had been home all day with his family, which fact was later verified.

I have never learned who the first caller was. However, the call did lead to my making an analysis of my husband and me. I am absolutely convinced that my husband isn't seeing anyone else but I do acknowledge the truth of my attitude. In five years I have gained 25 pounds, use make-up only when I go out, have let my hair become straggly, and do forget that my husband might like some affection. Now, should I tell him of the phone call or try to forget it?

AGNES R.

Self-Improvement Commended
Answer: Your caller certainly was a helpful hand in disguise, and if honestly seems as if that's just what he was trying to be. Husbands and wives often need to be jolted into a better appreciation of each other, and that is apparently what your anonymous friend accomplished in your case. Don't tell your husband of the call, but do continue with your ideas of self-improvement. You say that your husband has been tremendously pleased by the small things you've accomplished in one short week, so keep them up. Your increased attention to him, your efforts to improve your appearance, your evinced desire to spend more time with him — all have made an impression. Surely you cannot doubt the fidelity of a husband who is so obviously thrilled with your aim to please.

Look upon the mysterious phone call as the blessing that may have averted serious trouble in your household.

Dear Miss Dix: About a month ago I met a boy who is engaged to a girl in a hospital. He says he doesn't love her any more but won't tell her until she's well. In the meantime, he wants me to go out with him. I don't think I should go with a boy who is engaged, do you?

Answer: Not only should you not go with an engaged man, Laura, but the man's actions toward his fiancée are not entirely honorable. While it is true that love can change, and an engagement is of binding unto death, a man who falls out of love with a girl because she has had a long illness could scarcely be depended upon by anyone in any emergency. Such love is apt to be of the fair-weather variety, and not quite up to facing the vicissitudes of life.

Dear Miss Dix: A week ago on a class picnic, I went for a walk with one of the boys. We were gone quite a while, and indulged in petting. Since then, when I see him on the street, he scarcely notices me.

Answer: You have learned a bit

710-Pounder Is Hard to Handle

TULSA, Okla. (AP) The huffed and puffed, but it took six men two hours to tear down the trailer house of 710-pound Fred Pebley.

Using piano-moving equipment, saws, hammers, jacks and ramps, the moving company men grunted and groaned to ease the 38-year-old native Kansan man from his quarters to a specially constructed bed at the county home.

The big, jolly man said it was the first time in 12 months he had left the trailer. His legs cannot support his weight. He arrived at the home several months ago and had to live in his trailer because of his size.

Doctors said his size is the result of an overactive pituitary gland.

A county homespokesman said Pebley and his trailer were abandoned here last year by a promoter who had previously put him on exhibit in this area.

Pebley, who has no family other than his father in West Plains, Mo., grinned, "I'm free and happy."

Nurse Graduation Ratio Increases

WASHINGTON — The Public Health Service said today the ratio of active graduate nurses to population in the United States has increased in every decade from 1910 through 1950, but that the rate of increase slowed after 1930.

There were 55 nurses for each 100,000 people in 1910 and this ratio increased to 249 in 1950.

With 374,804 active graduate nurses reported in 1950, the service said 1 out of every 400 people in the nation is working as a nurse.

...that's what Labor Day is.
God is on the side of the working man, but He is against the indolent, shiftless, non-producers.
A man's work is born with him when he is born. But fitting is the day set aside in honor of the working man...it is "Labor Day." On this nationalized day we should think on God, church, family and all the good fortunes of the American working man
...Jesus said, "I will give you rest."

Sunday School Lesson

A Christian's Poverty and Riches
By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.

Saint Paul, as Saint Peter is reported as saying (II Peter 3:16), wrote "some things hard to understand."

He wrote, also, a great deal that is simple, clear and beautiful, with the greatest perfection of expression and style such as I Corinthians 13, Ephesians 3 and many other passages.

And, if some passages are obscure or massive in their exposition and argument, he wrote also a great deal that is deep in perception and thought, but that becomes clear enough in its insight and practical wisdom when one meditates upon it.

Such passages, I think, are those in which Paul mentions money and possessions. He writes about the Christians "as poor yet making many rich" (II Corinthians 6:10); "as having nothing, yet possessing all things."

Paul writes of "the unsearchable riches of Christ" (Ephesians 3:8). In the most remarkable passage of all (Ephesians 2:13) he sets forth the free and doctrine of the Christian's wealth: "Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are yours; whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours; and ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's."

I can imagine a cynic or scoffer saying that that sort of wealth won't do you much good in paying the doctor and the hospital when you're sick, and in meeting all the hard-pressed situations that call for hard cash and legal tender.

All that is true, and no one was more aware of it than Paul. He was a sound, practical economist in the ordinary things of daily life and need.

And, what is more to the point, he was a great originator of organized relief, gathering funds from the better-to-do Christians in successful trades for the relief of their poorer brethren, especially in the church at Jerusalem, where the poverty of Christians seems to have been acute.

No true Christian can ignore the social problems of poverty and need, or minimize the ways and means of solving it. There is no blessedness about poverty.

It has been my observation that those who sound the blessings of poverty are either usually those who have never themselves known want or those who, whatever their motives, are apt to be parasites, depending upon others.

The true note of the Old Testament was that of abundance, of hills dropping fatness; and Christianity never abolished that worthy economy.

But the Christian's wealth which Paul wrote was real even if it was not material. The reality and the evidence of it are on every hand. It was a pagan who wrote, "Clean half a thousand acres but the landscape 1." A song says, with some truth, that "the best things in life are free."

And the free grace of God is the freest, richest thing of all. What Paul wrote stands as a supreme invitation and a supreme fact.

Small Girl Saves Drowning Woman

BOSTON (AP) — A Scottish war bride who "never goes in the water" took a dip yesterday and minutes later was rescued from drowning by a small girl about 8 years old.

Mrs. Martha H. Moran, mother of three sons, said the little girl taught her to float and "I guess I floated out too far." Then, she said, she was unable to remain above water.

"I was going down for the third time," she said, "I know she was the one who saved me."

Mrs. Moran said she does not know her rescuer, but she plans to search Malibu Beach today in hopes of finding her. All she knows about the little girl is "she told me that when she's 18 she's going to swim the English Channel."

Coconut Cargo

The coconut pals, to which Palm Beach, Fla., owes its name, were the result of the wrecking of a Spanish cargo of coconuts off the coast in 1879, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

The Rev. F. R. Williams will leave Sunday night to attend the National Baptist convention in Miami, Fla.

The Harmony Five of Hot Springs will give a musical program at Mt. Zion CME Church Sunday night, September 6, sponsored by the Steward's Board.

Mrs. Lurline Phillips left Sunday night for Chicago, Ill., to attend the funeral of Mrs. Beatrice Goodloe.

Pvt. Herman D. Johnson has returned to Camp Leonard Wood, Mo., after spending a few days visiting his mother, Mrs. Ella Nash and sister, Mrs. Viola Chambers.
